

Asian Wealth Careers HSBC Jade, Hong Kong

HSBC is a people-focused bank. It embraces cultural diversity and is receptive to different voices.

It's a very loving and caring company.

A lot of the plans and developments are not focused on Hong Kong only but takes other market changes into consideration.

Many colleagues have won prestigious industry awards. So, we get exposure to many exciting things.

I love working in an environment with such talented people.

The work here is challenging but it's very fulfilling at the same time.

If you're someone with ambition, and if you have banking expertise, and value quality, customer-centric service, why not work here?

In this dynamic working environment with opportunities everywhere, there will be lots of space for development in your future.
