

The world's local bank

Clive C R Bannister

Group Managing Director of Insurance
HSBC Holdings plc

Clive Bannister has been the Group Managing Director of Insurance since 1 November 2006, responsible for all aspects of Insurance in the HSBC Group. Employing 10,000 professionals in ten major countries, HSBC's insurance business comprises direct, reinsurance, life and general insurance, focusing primarily on individuals and their families. In addition, the Group operates a wholesale broker, HSBC Insurance Brokers Ltd, as well as a captive insurance company called HSBC Insurance (Bermuda) Ltd, which provides reinsurance for the Group's risks.

Prior to this, Mr Bannister was appointed Chief Executive of HSBC Group Private Banking in 1998. He became Group General Manager and CEO of HSBC Group Private Banking in July 2001.

Between 1996 and 1998, Clive was Head of Investment Banking and Deputy CEO of HSBC Securities Inc in New York, overseeing the Group's debt and equity securities business in the Americas.

In 1998, Mr Bannister also took up a role of Special Advisor to the then Group Chairman, John Bond, for developing HSBC Group's five-year strategy "Managing for Value".

From 1994 to 1996, Clive Bannister was Director and Head of Planning and Strategy, HSBC Investment Bank Holdings plc.

Before joining HSBC in 1994, Clive was a Partner in the financial consulting practice of Booz Allen & Hamilton. He has an MA in Politics, Philosophy and Economics from Exeter College, Oxford University.

March 2007