The Notes have a scheduled maturity date of 11 June 2019 and are linked to the performance of the FTSE™ 100 Index (the Index) as determined by the Calculation Agent. The redemption amount of the Notes will be determined on the Final Valuation Date (which is scheduled for 28 May 2019). The level of the Index will be determined by the Calculation Agent on a series of fixing dates throughout the final year of the term of the Notes and on each such fixing date compared to the level of the Index on the Strike Date (Initial Index Level) to determine the performance of the Index on such fixing date. The redemption amount of the Notes will be determined with reference to the average of all such performances.

At maturity, each Note will be redeemed at 100% of its initial investment plus an 80% participation in the positive average performance of the Index. However, if the average performance of the Index is negative, investors will only receive their initial investment. The Notes are therefore principal protected.

Details of the past and future performance and volatility of the Index can be obtained from Bloomberg.
