

India Recruitment Fraud Advisory

This is to notify that The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited (HSBC) India does not ask prospective job seekers for any kind of payment during the recruitment process.

Please be aware of individuals who may try to contact prospective job seekers through fake recruitment calls / appointment letters / fictitious messages in the name of securing jobs at HSBC. These individuals may ask for payment via money transfer to obtain the final offer letter or process documents. We advise prospective job seekers to report such efforts to local law enforcement authorities for appropriate action.

HSBC is not responsible for any such fraudulent communication made or its consequences, and such fraudulent communication cannot be treated as any kind of offer or representation by HSBC.
