Regulatory Capital Instruments 31 December 2022

This document is a disclosure document published as required by, and solely for the purpose of compliance with, Articles 437(b) of The PRA Rulebook Disclosure (CRR) Part, to provide a description of the main features of the capital instruments of HSBC UK Bank plc.

The information contained in this document has been compiled in accordance with the CRR II, Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) No 1423/2013, Q&A published by the European Banking Authority and regulatory guidance published by the UK Prudential Regulatory Authority. Assumptions on the regulatory treatment of the capital instruments described herein under the CRR II reflect HSBC UK's interpretation of current rules.

Following the end of the transition period following the UK's withdrawal from the EU, any reference herein to EU regulations and directives (including technical standards) should, as applicable, be read as a reference to the UK's version of such regulations and/or directives, as onshored into UK law under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 and as may be subsequently amended under UK law.

Disclosure in the required format has resulted in simplification and abbreviation of the features of the capital instruments described herein. The information contained in this document is not intended to be a comprehensive description of such capital instruments. No investor or prospective investor in any such capital instruments should rely upon the description contained in this document and HSBC UK shall not be liable for any inaccuracy or misstatement contained in this document.

All capital instruments issued by HSBC UK Bank plc and its subsidiaries are held by HSBC UK Holdings Ltd. As such no external investors hold an interest in the securities, however the full terms and conditions for all instruments are available on request via Group Investor Relations (investorrelations@hsbc.com).
