HSBC AGREES TO SELL ITS BUSINESS IN PAKISTAN

HSBC Bank Middle East Limited ('HBME'), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of HSBC Holdings plc, has entered into an agreement to sell its banking business in Pakistan (the 'Business') to Meezan Bank Limited ('Meezan') through a scheme of amalgamation under the Pakistan Banking Companies Ordinance, 1962 ('the Transaction').

The Transaction, which is subject to regulatory and other customary approvals, including the approval of the direct shareholders in HBME and Meezan, is expected to complete during the second half of 2014.

At 31 December 2013, the Business comprised 10 branches and had gross assets of PKR48bn (approximately US$455m). All employees in the Business, with a very small number of exceptions, will be offered positions with Meezan upon completion.
