

Video transcript

We are HSBC Global Banking and Markets Transformation Services. Join our team

[Text on screen] Are you a change maker, a codebreaker?

Can you see the wood for the trees, the light at the end of the tunnel?

Are you a problem solver, a disrupter, an innovator, a collaborator?

Can you listen and talk and work out an answer?

We're HSBC Global Banking and Markets Transformation team, turning a daydream into mainstream.

Innovation, automation and data, there's no challenge greater.

Solving problems that have never been solved, shaping new products, and changing our world.

We want map readers and map makers devising and defining our future landscape.

Architects, scientists, designers, and creative a breath of fresh air, at the cutting edge, using your flair to make a real world impact.

The size of the opportunity is vast to shape and make things better, using design-led change to revolutionise our product range.

We are pioneers and engineers.

We persevere, adapt and react and rise to the challenge.

We drive evolution and revolution, work under pressure and endeavour to transform the business we're part of.

If you want to work on a global scale and blaze a trail with a global brand, then join us.

Help our clients support the global economy with their global trade and capital flows.

Stay on your toes, be a change maker, a mover and shaker.

Help us transform our future.

Help us outperform.

Help us take the world by storm.

Join us and help us to change our world.