

Match your skills to a career at HSBC

(upbeat music and writing on the screen)

I make trade deals happen [sentence is crossed out and replaced with] I take ownership

I support generations of customers [sentence is crossed out and replaced with] I manage relationships

I keep businesses in business [sentence is crossed out and replaced with] I identify opportunities

I move millions of dollars globally [sentence is crossed out and replaced with] I am collaborative

I optimise the banks technology [sentence is crossed out and replaced with] I think computationally

I turn data into insights [sentence is crossed out and replaced with] I am analytical

I build operational resilience [sentence is crossed out and replaced with] I am resilient

I advise millionaires [sentence is crossed out and replaced with] I am a powerful communicator

I stay on top of global economic trends [sentence is crossed out and replaced with] I have learning agility

It's your skillset that makes you great at what you do.

No matter what your background; aerospace engineering, nursing, liberal arts, microbiology, social anthropology, data analytics, law, biotechnology, civil engineering, geography, English literature, chemistry, philosophy, astrophysics....

You already have skills that can unlock a thriving career at HSBC.

Because at HSBC, every day you're learning, developing new skills that will take you in directions you never dreamed of.

Our experts will teach you, our managers will coach you, our courses will train you, our mentors will guide you.

You've got the skills. We've got the opportunities.

Match your skills to a career at HSBC.

Be part of something bigger.

Opening up a world of opportunity