

HSBC has archivists working in London, Hong Kong, Paris and New York. They preserve a variety of materials including ledgers, banknotes, photographs, letters, films and digital records.

Our archives contain information from

We have 180,757
catalogued items

across 5km
of shelving

There are more than 5 hours of recorded interviews with employees

We introduced 5,457
people to our history last year including

106
researchers

The archives contain

104,313

digital items, taking up

4.75

terabytes of storage

We answered more than

720

enquiries in 2017

Visit or get in touch
www.hsbc.com/history
or history@hsbc.com